

Jim Stanford

EDUCATION SEMINAR (VIDEO CONFERENCE)

The End of Auto Production in Australia: What Lessons Can We Learn?

We are very excited to announce that published author and former Unifor Economist Jim Stanford will be delivering an on Line Seminar about the Auto Sector in Australia. Jim has been studying the Australian auto industry for over two years, where Ford, Toyota and Holden (General Motors subsidiary), have all closed manufacturing operations. What lessons can we learn from the demise of Australian auto? Join us as Jim shares his analysis and commentary on the subject.

For More information Contact Melodie Zarlenga, Joe Petriello, Mike Kizul or Peter Scott

Issued by the Executive Board Unifor Local 199

Monday
November 26th
6:30 – 9:00pm

“Many question why the Australian government did not do more to protect this important sector”

Speaker:
Author and Economist Jim
Stanford

UNIFOR LOCAL 199

124 Bunting Road
St Catharines

905-682-2611 x 238

education@unifor199.org