

LABOUR STUDIES EDUCATION SEMINAR

100 Years Since the Winnipeg General Strike: Lessons for Today?

Exactly 100 years ago, with poverty, unemployment, and the gap between rich and poor growing, workers in Winnipeg Manitoba held one of the largest, most important general strikes in North America history. McMaster professor Wayne Lewchuck who is a great instructor will tell us about the historical strike and discuss the lessons we can learn for today.

This is a one-night video conference course that will be on Monday evening at the union hall 124 Bunting Road. St Catharines. From 6:30-9:00 pm

Please join us on November 25th for this exciting, informative and practical course. Space limited so please register with Peter Scott 905-682-2611
