

EDUCATION SEMINAR

Working in Auto:

“What’s Happening with the Auto Industry” – February 24th

In partnership with McMaster University, Unifor offers Educational Courses available for our members. These courses are part of a Labour Studies Certificate Program. The next course being offered is a one evening video conference course called “What’s Happening with the Auto Industry” is scheduled Monday February 24th at the Union Hall (6:30- 9:00pm) Participants will discuss how the US Auto Industry has changed overtime and the current state of the industry. We will explore auto industry trends and the impact on the Canadian

New hires, young workers, veteran workers, and retirees are all encouraged to attend this course. Participant will connect with autoworkers from across Ontario to develop an understanding of the current challenges to the auto sector as well as what the future will look like.

Classes are at the Union Hall in St Catharines. For more information or to register Contact Peter Scott, Bob McCreedy, Ashley Kofsky or Vince Guardari.

Issued By the Executive Board of Local 199

Dates

Monday

24th Feb 2020

6:30 pm - 9:00 pm

UNIFOR / McMaster

“The Auto sector is an important component of the Canadian Economy. It is important all levels of government understand this and protect these good paying jobs.”

UNIFOR LOCAL 199

124 Bunting Road
St Catharines

905-682-2611 x 238

Education@unifor199.org