

ONLINE EDUCATION FOR AUTO WORKERS!

The Unifor-McMaster University Labour Studies Program is designed especially for Unifor auto workers. As a Unifor member working for GM, Ford or Stellantis, you can take online education from the comfort of your home, with fellow auto workers around the province, and work towards a university certificate. Why not try a course? No cost to our members, as fees are covered through a special funding arrangement with Unifor.

Unifor-McMaster Labour Studies Certificate

Fall 2024 Course Schedule

Unions and society 4 Sessions	What exactly is 'organized labour'? How do unions improve members lives? How do they help democratize and improve all of society? Why did workers want to form mass unions over 100 years ago? What was life like before unions? Was there a war against unions and workers? Thurs, Sept 26, Oct 3, 24, 31, 5:30-8:30pm
Are corporations authoritarian? 2 sessions	Big corporations have ownership and control over most of the economy, and what we do all day at our job. Are corporations authoritarian? Do they have too much control over our lives? Prof. Richard Wolff of NYC returns to discuss these issues. Thurs, Sept 19, Nov 7, 5:30-8:30 pm
Is the law biased in favour of big business? 2 Sessions	Is the law really blind? Does labour law protect workers and big business equally, or is it skewed to protect profits over people? University law professor Harry Glasbeek joins us to discuss if the law protects the interests of big business at the expense of ordinary working people. Thurs, Nov, 14, Dec 5, 5:30-8:30 pm

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER FOR COURSES

REGISTRATION CLOSSES 3 BUSINESS DAYS BEFORE THE FIRST SESSION

Enroll ASAP as registration WILL BE CLOSED EARLY if class size reaches capacity

For more info about our program, or to get on our email list, email: lbstcert@mcmaster.ca

Contact your local 199 Area Coordinator to get on our update list:

vguardari.workplaceco@gmail.com